BIOLOGY

The Biology department usually has about forty majors a year, keeping Muhlenberg's reputation as a fine pre-medical school. The students participate in classes, labs, research projects, and independent studies. The department has a lot of fine equipment, including their electron microscope. The department hosts a party in the winter and a picnic in the spring for all Biology majors.

CHEMISTRY

The Chemistry department, provides an excellent array of experiences for about forty majors each year. Each student has the opportunity to work on research projects. The department also offers seminars, internships, labs, classes, and such. Students that complete the requirements are given an American Chemical Society Certification.

DRAMA/ EDUCATION

The Drama department hosted many fine productions. The students learn to perform, they do perform, and the whole college community is enhanced by their works. Courses include back-stage and onstage experience. The majors leave the school prepared for professional theatres; this is evident by their 'professional' productions which we all can be proud of.

Although there is no major program through the Education department, students can earn their teaching certificates. The department offers classes, seminars, and requires two student teaching experiences.

PHILOSOPHY / PHYSICS

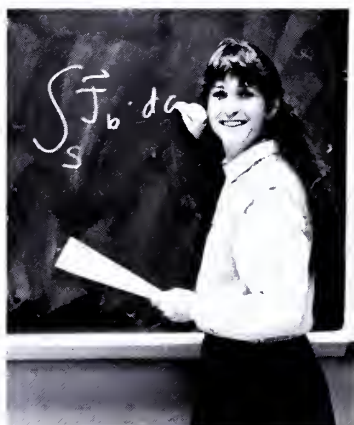

The Physics Department offers courses in Atomic and Nuclear Physics, Electronics, Mechanics, and Optics. Physics students say that the courses are very interesting as well as challenging. Not only are there a number of Physics majors, but a very active Physics Club.

The Philosophy department provides a very challenging collection of courses. These courses are some of the most popular on campus and include: The Meaning of Life, Critical Thinking, Problems of Philosophy, Ethics, Bio-chemical Ethics, Philosophy of Religion, Formal Logic, and so on. The department has just recently created a new major, the Humanities major; and the department offers seminars along with their courses.

RELIGION SOCIOLOGY- ANTHROPOLOGY

The Religion department is very active in the campus community. Every student is required to take at least two religion classes. Many choose to take more. The department hosts the Wednesday morning Coffee and Fellowship. They offer seminars, study abroad in the Holy Land, and study in Washington, D.C. (Religion and Politics Semester).

The Sociology and Anthropology department also offers seminars, along with field work and internships in Archaeology, Anthropology, and Sociology. This year the department began work on restoring a totem pole and hosted an indian artist.

This page is dedicated to those special people that help this campus continue to run smoothly: the grounds crew, the secretaries, the gameroom people, the bookstore people, the campus police, the cleaning staff, special lecturers, and countless others. The numbers of all the people who contribute to Muhlenberg is so large that we are not able to thank each one individually. This is unfortunate because everyone is important in our campus community. We only hope that they realize that their efforts are genuinely appreciated.

FOOTBALL A VICTORIOUS STYLE

The Mules kicked off their season with a scrimmage against Montclair State, which was supposed to prepare them for the tough schedule that waited impatiently ahead. The season began rather inauspiciously when the Mules lost their first outing to a tough Susquehanna University team that went on to compete in the Division 3 National Championships.

Fortunately for the Mules, Dickinson College became their first victim. Muhlenberg became 10 in their conference. All conference tailback Charles Voorhees led the way to victory with a performance that inspired the team to hang on for a tough fought defensive battle.

Franklin and Marshall came to Mule field extremely prepared and beat the Mules in the first half of the game. All conference tight end Tom Moyer led a tenacious surge in the second half that fell short of a comeback win, but, led the pattern for a six game winning streak.

The Mules travelled to Western Maryland and had to prove to themselves that they were indeed a good football team. This proved to be one of the pivotal points in the season. A lot of doubters had written off Coach Kirchenheiter's squad at this point. But the leadership of the seniors took over and their pride would not let it happen. T. Mark Farrell's play at line backer solidified a team effort that turned the game into a blowout as they began to gel in the second half and beat a very physical Western Maryland team at their own game.

In came Swarthmore, The Mules dominated the game both offensively and defensively. All American Mike Goldfarb had one of his finest performances of his career registering 7 solo tackles, 2 sacks, and a blocked pass.

Riding the crest of the last game, the Mules travelled to Johns Hopkins on what is traditionally a tough game because of the bus ride to Baltimore and the problem of being the only people at school during October break. The Mules managed to pull off a narrow victory.

Homecoming brought the Bullets of Gettys-bery, a team that went to the final four in the Division 3 National playoffs a year ago. All ECAC offensive tackle Arthur Kopacz had a superb game and allowed the Mules offense to control the ball for most of the game. The huge crowd saw the Mules hold on to victory when Gettysberg missed a long field goal attempt with seconds left in the game.

The next challenge the Mules had to face was one to Ursinus College, who were playing some of the best football in the college's history. Captain Brad Fischer intercepted a pass and had one of the finest games of the season. The thriller of a game saw the lead change hand several times in the final minutes with just about 20 seconds remaining the Mules mounted a drive that culminated with a Moyer touchdown with seconds left.

Catholic University travelled to challenge the Mules. The game saw a milestone by Senior fullback Robert Shapiro who had 109 yards on 16 carries and a touchdown. In the final Mules home game for the seniors they played some of their best football on a field that they had all come to love and it showed as they dominated the game against Catholic.

The Mules final game of the season was at Moravian College. Game MVP John Hobby All ECAC kept the team spirit up as the defense tried to keep the Mules in the game, but Shapiro and Voorhees sown with injuries the offense could not get on track.

The Mules captured a piece of the Centennial Conference championship, the second time in the past four years that they have done so. John Hobby tied a school record for most interceptions. This years graduating senior class had more wins in their four years span than any other previous group. The players would like to thank their families and their fans for their support. Hard work and dedication Pay off. - Robert Shapiro

HALFTIME SPIRIT

Muhlenberg's mascot protests a play!

Diehard mule fans stick it out

The Pep Band adding even more spirit.

Many of Muhlenberg's students participated in providing the halftime entertainment at this season's football and basketball games. The girl's pom-pom squad performed their routines with spirit, while the teams were preparing for the 2nd half. Of course, the Mule mascot can always be found jumping and cheering on the mules, all through the games.

From the home stands of many football games came the crisp, inspiring sounds of the Pep Band. They added music and spirit to help the Mules win, and to help the fans keep up their morale.

GIVE ME A M-U-L-E-S

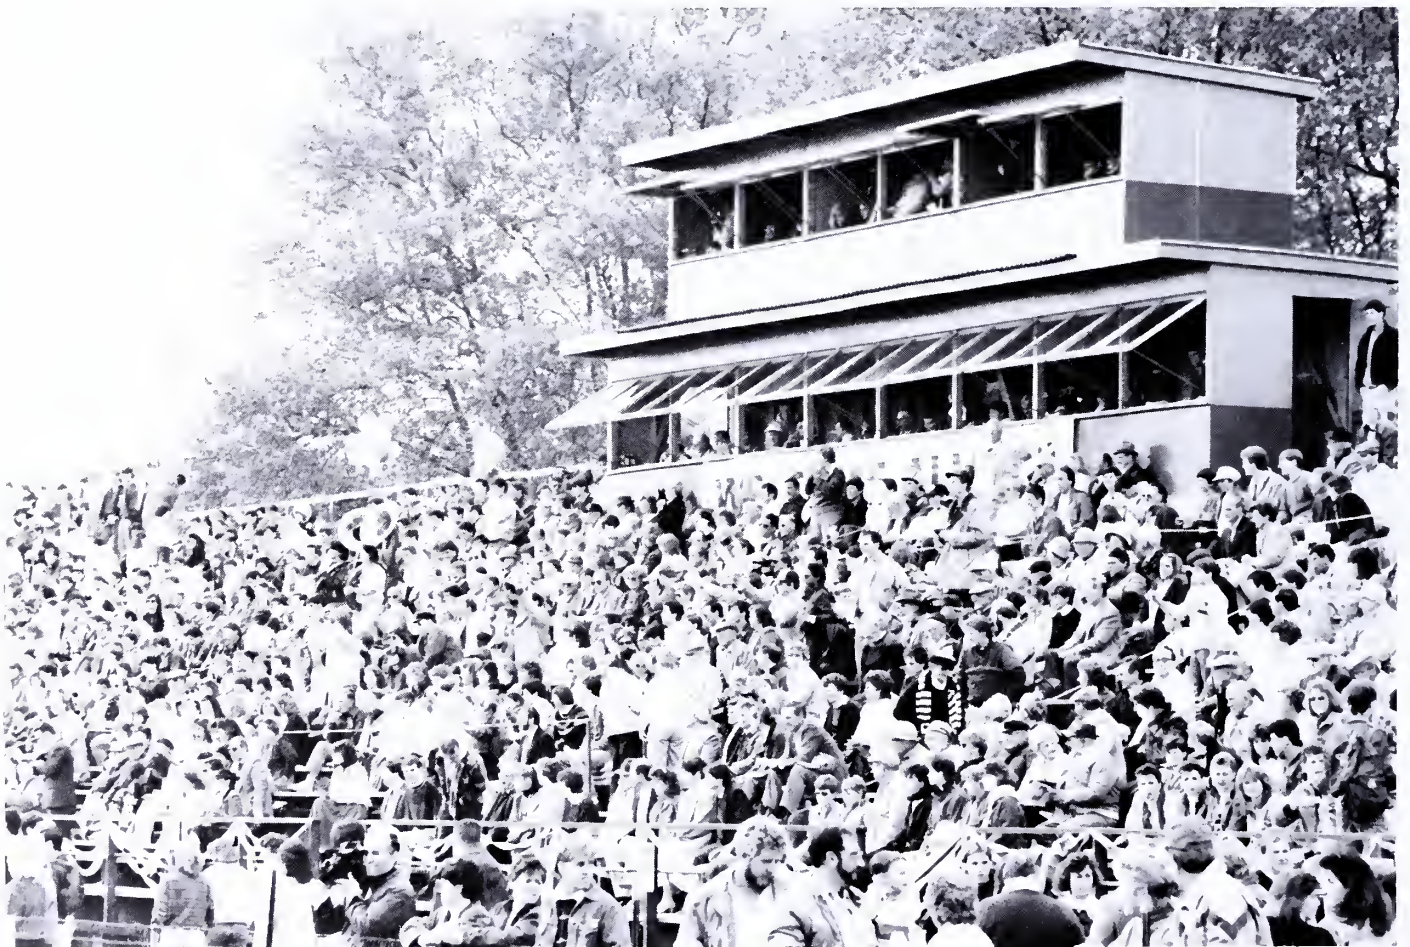

Lead by senior co-captains Susan Beppel and Dana Ciaffone, the 1986-'87 Muhlenberg cheerleading squad kept up the school's spirit. Determined to dress up their act, the girls held their own fund raising dinner. This paid for new uniforms for the basketball season. They also spiced up the season with a half time show. Three senior girls are leaving the squad this year but, there are many underclassmen to keep up the traditional Muhlenberg Spirit. The time and dedication of the squad was greatly appreciated by both the football and the basketball teams.

CROSS COUNTRY - Depth And Ability

The 1986 season faced the Muhlenberg Cross Country team with many challenges. Only one sophomore returned from last year, captain Paul Garfinkle. The remaining runners included sophomore Todd Holmberg, and freshmen Mark Abraham, Joe Siwaggio, Rob Herb, Ron Horowitz, and Mark Morginstin. Facing more experienced teams, Mule runners found it very difficult to establish a foothold. However each runner tried to break their own personal best time each race. The last race of the season, the MAC's at Gettysburg, proved to be the season's highlight when Muhlenberg defeated one team. Although we didn't win often we all became very close and had fun no matter where we were. Next season looks more promising because of returning experience and new recruits.

FIELD HOCKEY - Spirited Success

Leslie Widmer ready to pass.

Coach Helene Hospodar lead the lady Mules to 9-4 victorious season. Losing four seniors this year, the team will have to rebuild its defense. Leading the defense from her halfback position, captain Andrea Dowhower did an outstanding job, garnering All-MAC honors at the close of the season. Leslie Widmer was also a member of the All-MAC squad. Senior Suzanne Seplow held back the opponents, while a new freshman goal keeper saved the goal. Michele Aimone and Chris Niche kept the offense running, dedicated to bringing the ball down the field they worked with Nancy Alvarez to score for our team. The squad will surely miss the enthusiasm and the leadership that the seniors provided. The young lady Mules of 1987 will have a hard image to follow, but look forward to a successful season.

A SUCCESSFUL FALL OF SOCCER

Muhlenberg soccer took on a whole new meaning this year. Jeffrey Tipping, formerly of Hartwick College, accepted the coaching position of a team destined for success. "Tipp" as he is referred to, started his work months before he even came to Muhlenberg. He searched the tri-state area for players who had skill, but more importantly, they had heart. He found a handful of guys with more heart than was imaginable. They came to pre season ready to play and ready to win. The returning players felt the pressure and came alive. It was a battle all season to get playing time. This may have been the soul cause of igniting the mules.

The season started out very well. The mules met, nationally ranked, Messiah at Muhlenberg and won. The mules had a 4-0 record going into the fifth game against Delaware Valley. They were nearly the worst team in the league, the mules were upset: "unlucky". The season progressed, and an NCAA bid was all riding on one game, so they thought. Gettysburg was leading the league with an undefeated record. The mules scored and then switched to a low pressure situation. They held Gettysburg off in what turned out to be the most exciting game of the season. They missed the NCAA'S but qualified for the ECAC tournament. They were defeated there by Mary Washington in the opening round. However, making the tournament was a great success. 12-5-2 was a much improved record over last years 6-10-4. The dramatic performance was partly attributable to leading scorer Chris Bingman and outstanding goal-tending by Mark Mashrer. However, if it was not for the support and hustle of the entire team, there achievements would have meant nothing.

The seniors of 1987 wish next years soccer "Ninjas" the best of luck, though they won't need it.

Respectfully submitted,
Louis V. Bellucci

VOLLEYBALL - A Respectable Finish

Led by Senior Captains Geraldine Fox, Laura Lemole, and Sarah Lindert, the Muhlenberg Women's Volleyball team posted an overall 11-16 record for the season. Friendships established among returning players proved to be an important factor in holding the team together while adjusting to a third new coach in four years. The season got off to a slow start but with the experience of the new coach Kathy Carbone and assistant coach Laura Nork, the Lady Mules finished with a respectable season.

The team will be losing five starting seniors, who will all be missed next year; Larua Lemole, Sarah Lindert, Geraldine Fox, Donna Pecora, and Barb Pelham. The underclassmen: Gogo Dayoub, Nicole DiPierre, Chris Fosko, Mindy Hutton, and Sue Vuolo will return next year with high expectations for the fall. Due to the player experience and good repore with the new coaching staff, the Lady Mules look forward to competitive play next season.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL: A Team Sport

Coach Karl Foerster returns for another winning season after breaking the school record last year for the most victories in a season. He dramatically upgraded the team's schedule in hope of achieving a higher competitive plane.

Three starters returned from last year: co-captains Sharon Andrews and Anne Searles, a guard and forward, respectively, and forward Tracey Herb. All three lead the team with scoring ability and leadership. Guard Joann Dicarlo and center Jill Stetz returned to become important contributors to the team's winning season.

The team gained six new players this year. These girls along with the returning players turned into a competitive team.

MULE WRESTLING - A Grappling Season

The 1986-87 wrestling season brought new faces to the whole season. The coaches Mike Laporta and Barry Bartek are both new coaches and are very dedicated to improving the wrestling program. This change in the leadership began last year when the overall record was 1-16 but the season coaches turned everything around to a 9-10 record. The coaches recruited many freshmen which contributed to the teams improvement and to their future success.

Three seniors on the team helped the team to a courageous effort. Senior Al Flower wrestled in the second semester to a 4-3 record and help the Mules to their 9-10 record by competing in the 167 or 177 pound weight class. Senior Doug Schildhaus was a captain and wrestled to a record of 8-8. His continued improvement throughout the season made him a contender to place in the 1987 MAC championships. But an unfortunate knee injury abruptly ended his season before the MAC's. Senior Garret Waller was a captain and wrestled at 167 pound weight class. His team leadership and dedication were a key factor to the Mules success. He achieved a 16-10 record and took second place in the La Salle tournament. His best match occurred during the MAC championships, where he lost a close match to the second seated wrestler but came back during the wrestlebacks to win four matches. Garrett and the rest of the seniors will be greatly missed.

Junior, 158 pound captain, Scott Schlenker finished the year with a 26-2 overall record. Schlenker was the Mules highest place winner in MAC championships and in the finals won the MAC Championships. Schlenker then went to the Nationals and unfortunately lost twice 7-1 and 7-6. Scott's 1987 finish was better than his finish in 1986. He is continually improving and contributing to the success of the team.

The other wrestlers who participated this season include: Jeff Martin, Gary Defrancesci, Rob Ukeiley, Rick Gilston, Mark Abraham, Dave Ulrich, and Scott Graybill. Although the team is losing 3 seniors, the captains count on the improvement of the underclassmen on the team. There is a great deal of optimism for the years to come.

THE MULE SLUGGERS

The Muhlenberg Baseball team began their season with their usual spring training program. Their tour started on February 28 and headed south to play small-college baseball teams in North Carolina and Virginia. Headed by Coach Sam Beidleman, and with fourteen returning lettermen on the squad the season began with optimism.

The team was led by senior co-captains Tom Moyer and Tom Lukasiewicz. Moyer was a three-year starter in centerfield and Lukasiewicz was a solid performer at first base. Offensively the Mule attack was bolstered by junior Dave Tritto, junior Mike Abel, and sophomore Andy Castin.

The pitching mound is the place where the Mules have been most vulnerable. The starting pitcher was Craig Corn. Also filling the pitching positions were sophomore Matt Andes and Mike Delgrande. Another good candidate was freshman Chris Schlenker. Senior Jon Keller and sophomore Ron Binn worked out of the bullpen. Bill Cronin, first-year senior, was behind the plate for the season which gave Dave Tritto more time as a designated hitter. Sophomore Mike Tremblay played second base and did a fine job at it. Junior Ray Handel covered third base.

The overall season was 12-12 with one tie.

Front Row: A. Castin; M. Yaloff; C. Coffey; T. Lukasiewicz; T. Moyer; M. Tremblay; Binn. 2nd Row: C. Corn, D. Tritto; E. Dieter; R. Handel; J. Keller; M. Abel; S. Polsky.

3rd Row: B. Cronin; K. Hardy; M. Wegryn; C. Dougherty; C. Schlenker. 4th Row: Coach Beidleman; Assistant Coach.

TRACK AND FIELD

Building a successful track program at Muhlenberg and competing successfully against traditionally well-established teams in the Middle Atlantic Conference, requires dedication to a training schedule that begins before Christmas break and continues throughout the cold months into the early spring. This is what Coach John McVan had in mind. He took the head coaching job three years ago with the intention of rebuilding the program in five years. He has put together a team of hard working athletes, each of which contributes their own part to the team.

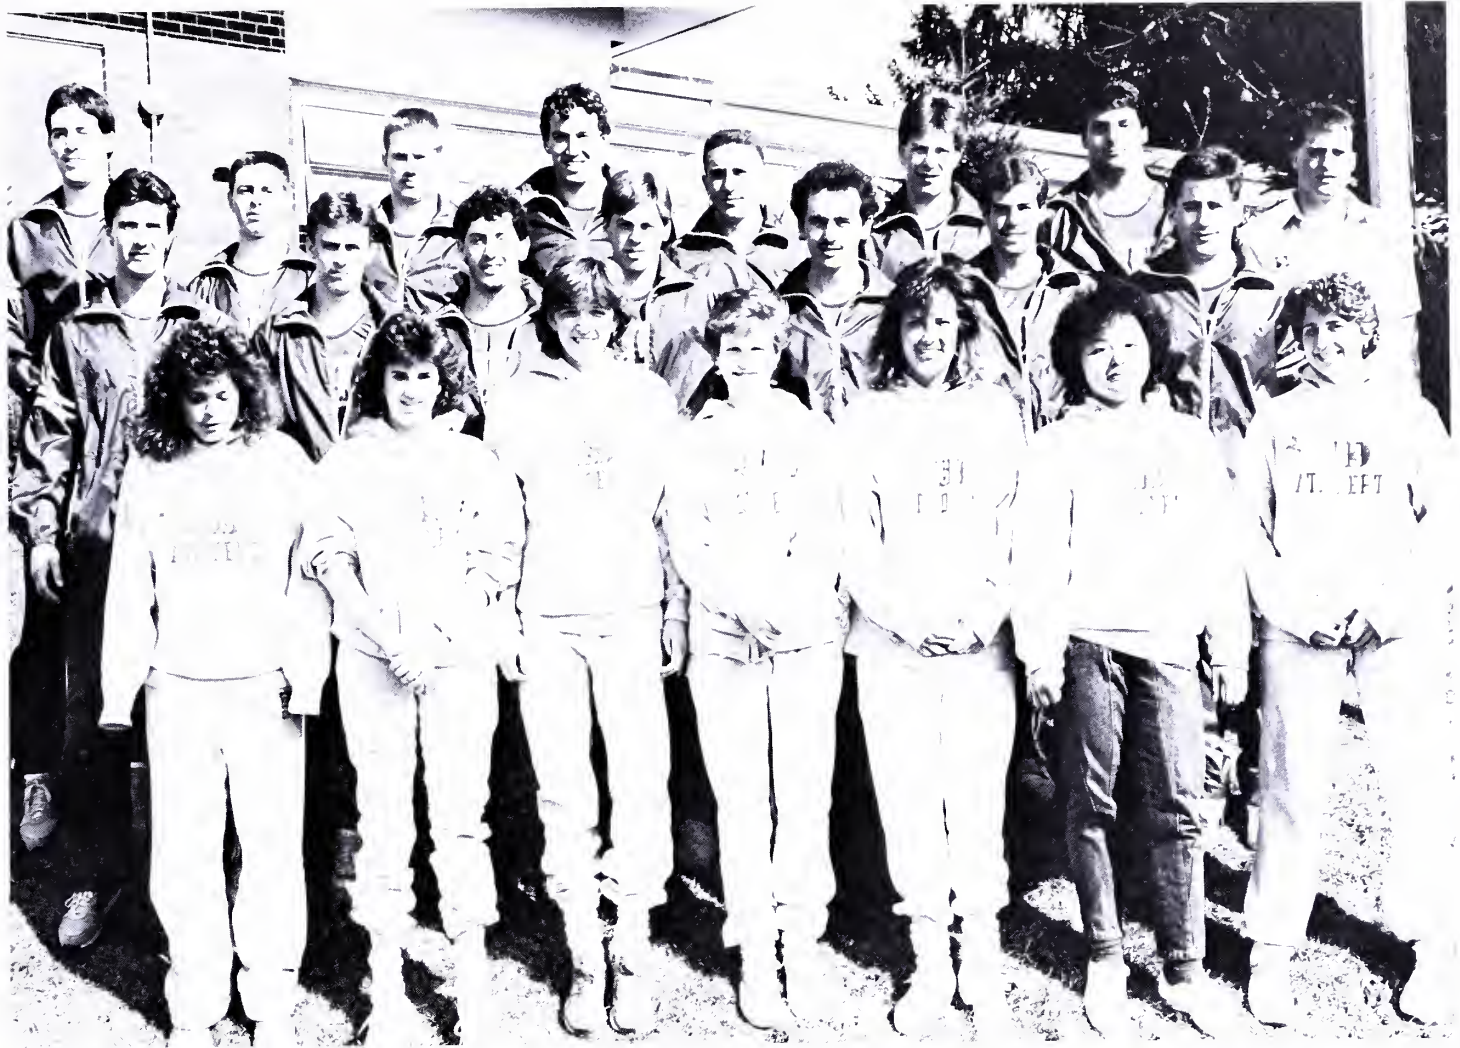

To date, team commitment has paid off in a number of ways. Twelve athletes achieved five personal best during the indoor season. The combined men's and women's teams set school records in over five events. The women's team took a big step toward gaining varsity status.

Coach McVan is a hard working coach who is dedicated to having a successful track team.

MUHLENBERG NEWS

Plans for the new library were actually set in motion on March 14 at the Groundbreaking Ceremony. The expected date of completion is the summer of 1988.

There will be no more bowling at Seeger's Union. The lanes have been ripped out to make way for the expansion of the bookstore and possibly a non-alcoholic pub.

Ernest in Love is a musical farce based on Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest, one of the comic masterpieces of the English Theatre. The play revolves around the misfortune of two young men, Algernon and John Worthing, (having been given a surname other than Ernest), and their attempts at keeping the scandalous fact from being discovered. Their attempts lead them to a rather precarious position saved from collapse only by an unexpected fact revealed in the final act.

Charles Richter directed the play, and Curtis Dretsch designed the set. The musical score was created by Anne Croswell and Lee Pockriss.

Yes, my dear Lane, we're off to meet Cecily Cardew.

The right cravat and hat make the perfect marriage.

Well, Lady Bracknell, I was found in a handbag

No, Gwendolyn, you cannot marry Mr. Worthing without our consent.

To make a Shakespeare play come alive requires a level of energy and talent only Muhlenberg's Theatre Association could provide. And with the production of Twelfth Night this level was not only attained but exceeded. On the brilliantly creative "neoclassical" set that Curtis Dretsch designed the mythical land of Illyria came to life. As is true with most Shakespearian comedies, the plot is intricately complex and resolved only in the final act of the play. Up until then the audience is caught up in the tightly woven love triangle involving Viola, Olivia, and Orsino. The actors and actresses showed their superb theatrical ability in rendering the baffling circumstances of the plot quite clear and easy to follow.

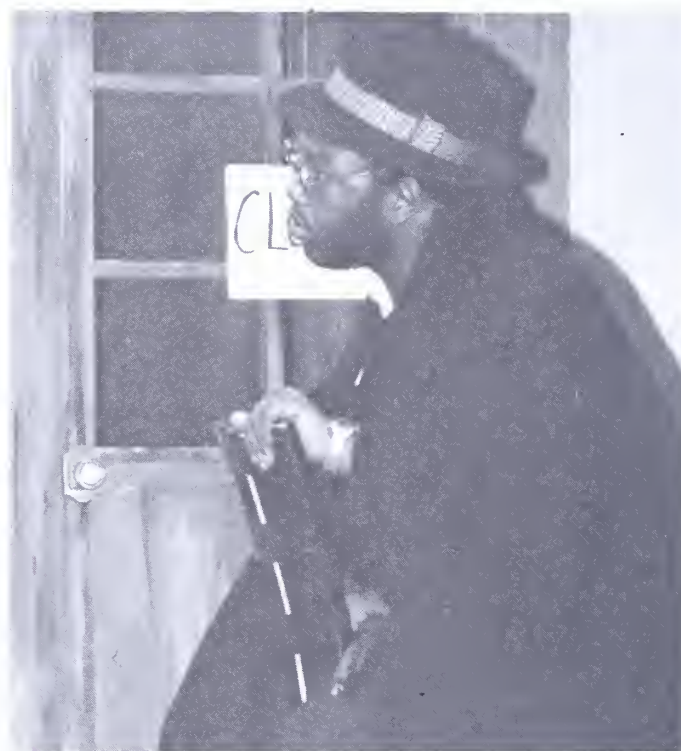

Maria tells of her plan to humiliate Malvolio.

SLOW DANCE ON THE KILLING GROUND

The production of William Hanley's play by the Muhlenberg Theatre Association was an opportunity for many to display talents not yet recognized. Curtis Cheatham, who played a comical character earlier this season, was given the chance to play a serious one in a featured role. The play also gave Alan Cook the opportunity to step out of his familiar role of director and into the role of actor. Julie Miles stepped into Cook's position and demonstrated her ability to intelligently direct this complex play.

The play itself revolves around the hidden truth behind appearances, and the inability of people to cope with that truth in the outside world. The benign setting of a candy store serves as a haven for the characters — a protected place where their truths will not be judged. Although the candy store is a place where the characters feel safe, the set was designed so that the audience feels uncomfortable while the characters reveal their truths.

The audience comes to the realization by the end of the play that the candy store is not isolated and protected from the "killing ground," but has instead served as a place where the three characters have found a way to survive it together.

OKLAHOMA! is a play that asks the burning philosophical question:

"But Aunt Eller, who am I to go to the Box Social with tonight?"

OKLAHOMA! is a play with high moral ethics:

"I'm just a girl who can't say no, I'm just a fool when the lights are low."

OKLAHOMA! is a play where money can buy love:

"Ado Annie's Pa said I could marry her if ever I was worth $50. And I got that $50!!!"

OKLAHOMA! is

O.K.!!!

HOMECOMING 1986

Jill Vaughan returns to pass on her crown and title.

Phi Sig has caught the true spirit of Mule Magic.

Once again alumni returned to the Lehigh Valley in anticipation of the homecoming festivities, beginning Thursday Night October 23 with the George Carlin comedy show. By the time Friday rolled around, alumni had swarmed the campus, parking spaces had become few and far between. The band and the cheerleaders were present at the bonfire, firing the crowd up for what would be the 15th consecutive homecoming victory for the football team over Gettysburg.

Activities began on Saturday with the Wellness fair, as well as interviews for admission of alumni-related applicants and Departmental Open Houses. By noon, the annual tailgate picnic and Homecoming parade was underway. The parade included cars decorated by the three sororities, student council, the Freshmen class, and Alpha Phi Omega. Awards were later given out to Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi Omega, and the class of 1990 for the best floats. The football game began at 2:00 and culminated in a 10-7 victory for the Mules, and the crowning of a new homecoming queen, Suzanne Seplow. Following the game was the reception in the solar corridor, and the annual homecoming recital in the Center for the Arts that evening. The soccer team was also victorious with a win over Lebanon Valley, they had begun new life under a new coach, and soundly beat the opponents 7-0.

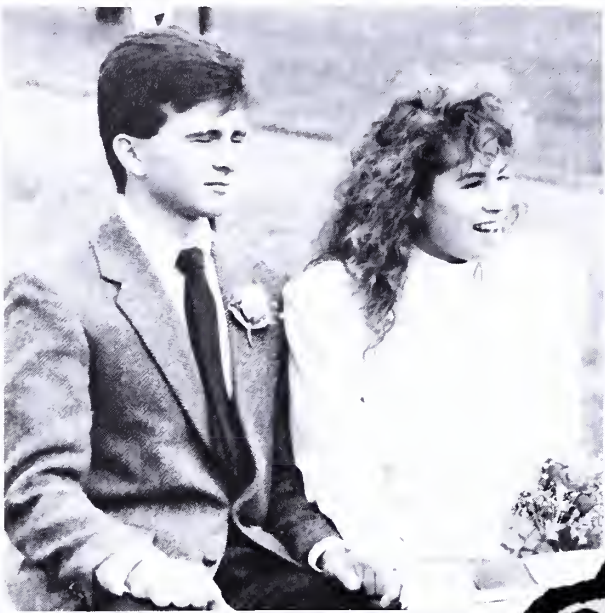

The sign on Seegers Union, "Welcome Home Alumni" proudly said it all, for no matter how long you have been away, this is what your school will always be.

SENIOR WEEK

May 10 marked the end of final exams and the beginning of one of the best weeks ever in a student's college years --- SENIOR WEEK. It was a week for all seniors to enjoy, when old friends reminisced about the past four years, and newly discovered friends were sorry for not having met sooner, but all wished the week could last a year.

Margot Steinberg and Lisa Beninati did a fantastic job of planning the events. Most people headed to the Jersey shore for the first couple of days. There were pub-nites in the Belmar area and in Atlantic city to satisfy requests for both. After a few days in the sun, it was back to Allentown for a pub-nite at Ye Olde Ale House. The rest of the week was great and filled with tent parties, beer trucks and frisbee playing on Brown beach, a happy hour with pizza and a pub night at ZBT, and just general sun and fun! Before we knew it, it was Saturday, the last day of Senior Week. A champagne brunch was held before the big senior meeting, when the reality of graduation really hit, as plans were discussed and we were given our caps and gowns. The day and week ended with a final tent party on Brown beach with a beer truck, a video D.J., and all of our favorite friends to make the celebration complete. When looking back on our Muhlenberg years, the fun of Senior Week will always be one of our favorite memories.

On Sunday, May 17, 1987 Muhlenberg College held its 139th commencement exercises. A Baccalaureate service was held in the morning, (for those graduates able to wake up, or for those still awake from the night before). Then at 2:30, with music by the Allentown Band, the procession of graduates and faculty entered the campus, as proud family members and friends cheered, waved, and snapped pictures from the side.

Mike Hanlon delivered the speech for the class of 1987 to his fellow graduates and reminded us of our fulfilled four years at Muhlenberg. Kevin Swill, student council president, followed Mike in addressing his fellow grads. Michelle Almone announced the results of the senior class pledge drive and accepted a $10,000 donation from Theodore Lithgow Jr., on behalf of RJR-Nabisco. Mr. Lithgow, graduate of the Muhlenberg class of 1953 and president of Merckens Chocolate Co., then addressed the class of 1987.

A combination of the hot sun and a poor audio system made everyone restless and anxious for the ceremony to proceed. Finally the candidates were presented by Robert C. Williams, Vice-President and Dean of the College, as President Jonathan C. Messerli awarded the diplomas to each graduate. At the close of the ceremony, senior Wendy Wiebalk led in the singing of Muhlenberg's Alma Mater. The commencement program left the class of 1987 with nice final memories of Muhlenberg College, and bright hopes for the future.

Congratulations to all members in Ciarla.

So many faces in and out of my life,
Some will last, some will just be now and then;
Life is a series of hellos and goodbyes,
I'm afraid it's time for goodbye again.

PRINTING BY: JOSTENS YEARBOOK

From the day we agreed to become co-editors-in-chief of the 1987 Ciarla, we knew it would involve a great deal of work and responsibility, and that we could not do it alone. We have many people to thank for their invaluable contributions. First of all we owe a million thanks to Bill O'Brien and everyone at Jostens Yearbook Company. They have given us terrific service, quality, and attention. Bill has been like a guardian angel to us from the start. He was able to foresee problems that we were headed for and steer us away from them. He was always willing to meet with us at any time to review printing techniques, layout designs or any details we had questions about.

We are also very grateful to Abe Orlick, who has given Muhlenberg College his special attention for years, and to the rest of Davor Photo for their wonderful quality of pictures, the incredible service of their staff, and the availability of their professional photographers for certain events. Most of the pictures in this book were taken by our photography staff. We wish to thank them and especially Robin Schwartz, our Photography Editor, whose services to us extended far beyond the call of duty.

Of course we are thankful to our section editors and staff members who did a great job and worked very hard. Diane Pfeiffer was very helpful as our Business Editor in raising funds to aid with the cost of the Ciarla. We also owe a great big thanks to the families and friends of the class of '87 for their monetary donations.

Last, but not at all least, thanks to Bob Clark, Arlene Gisolfi, and Welles Lobb of College Relations for all of their help. We, with the help of all these people, have achieved our goal in presenting the class of 1987 with their yearbook; a book which has hopefully captured the spirit of Muhlenberg College and all of its moments.
